CAMBRIDGE
PRINTED FOR CHARLES B. RICHARDSON
NEW YORK
1862

Riverside Press :

Reprinted by HENRY O. HOUGHTON,
Cambridge.

THE two hundred and ninety-five pages which follow this brief introductory notice comprise a literal reprint of the whole of that curious little metrical volume known to antiquaries as the Bay Psalm Book, and to bibliographical writers and scholars as the New England Version of the Psalms, and which was very early in use by our New England forefathers as the New England Psalm Book. In the reproduction of this quaint volume every word, every letter, and indeed every point has been sedulously collated with a perfect impression of the original work struck at Cambridge in the year 1640.

We are informed by the distinguished annalist of New England, the Reverend Mr. Thomas Prince of Boston, that "The first settlers of the New England colonies, — who came to Plymouth in 1620, to Salem with three ministers for the Massachusetts and one for Plymouth in 1629, and with the Massachusetts charter, governor, deputy-governor, assistants, four ministers, and fifteen hundred people to Boston and the neighboring towns in 1630, — were esteemed in England as some of the most eminent for Scripture knowledge, piety, and strict adherence to the word of God as any in their day. They wisely made the Divine oracles the only rule of their religion ; and their great and noble design was to spread the holy kingdom of Christ in its Scripture purity, light, and power in this new world, and to set up churches for their matter, form, worship, liberty, watch, government, and discipline, as near as possible to what they were under the conduct of inspiration in the Apostles days." These finding themselves, in the accomplishment of their designs, much in need of Scriptural melodies for their private religious meetings and for the worship of God upon the Lord's day, several of the most distinguished of their pious and learned ministers, as early as the year 1636, began to prepare a metrical version of the Psalms and other sacred writings to appropriate metre, retaining as nearly as possible the exact meaning of the inspired originals. By the year 1640 the Psalms were versified ; and, under the supervision of the Reverend Mr. Richard Mather of Dorchester, the Reverend Mr. Thomas Weld and the Reverend Mr. John Eliot of Roxbury, persons eminently qualified for the purpose, as being well acquainted with the Hebrew and Greek languages, they were immediately prepared for the press. During the same year, the printing was executed by Mr. Stephen Daye, at Cambridge, in a manner that certainly, as far as press-work is concerned, was highly creditable to the craft of the infant colony. In those days, however, text-books on punctuation were not in the hands of compositors, nor were there skilful persons near to revise the proofs, consequently there was no great minding of stops observed; and commas, semicolons, and full-points, were miscellaneously distributed, with very little regard to propriety. The running-titles of the book, as may be seen by examination of the reprint, would greatly astonish the youngest apprentice of a modern printing-office. For instance, to the preface the running-title is, on the left-hand page, "The.", with a full-point after it; and, on the right-hand page, "Preface." For the remainder of the book the compositor, for some unknown and unimaginable reason, used the word PSALM on every even page, and P S A L M E (spaced) on the odd pages. The divisions, which a modern printer is so extremely careful about, are oftentimes as bad as they can be, monosyllables being divided at the ends of lines with hyphens, and not unfrequently polysyllables divided without them. The book had no folios on the corners of the pages, making it difficult to find the Psalms as readily as could be desired. Thus appeared the first book printed in America, not reckoning as such what Daye had printed in the previous year, namely, the Freeman's Oath, and an Almanac for New England.

The second edition of the New England Version was printed in a volume of 300 pages, crown octavo, in 1647, with slight amendments in phraseology; after which President Dunster, of Harvard College, with the assistance of Mr. Richard Lyon, a gentleman of parts, attempted a more thorough version, which was duly completed and printed in a volume of 308 pages, also in crown octavo, in 1650. In this last form, the preparation of which required the labor of about three years, the book was so favorably regarded, that it was not only the version in general use in New England, but was also preferred by many of the congregations in England, where it was used as late as the year 1717. In the year 1758, Rev. Thomas Prince, the annalist, published a revised and improved edition, to which he added a collection of hymns on several important subjects having a devotional bearing.

These Psalms from time to time were changed and amended in phraseology, and were for many years in use in New England, — but in such an altered form that they probably could not be recognized as such without much study.

Before closing this notice one word is due the printer ; for without it, he may appear to some as having been very negligent in correcting his forms, or the editor must be stigmatized as a very poor proof-reader. Indeed, so exact and faithful has the compositor been in following the original copy, that the bad spacing, omission of spaces, irregular justification, bad divisions, broken type, letters inverted, mixed lower case letters with italics, and typographical errors, are strictly reproductions of the printer's errors of the olden time. Let the reader, then, give to the printer the credit justly his due ; for in this instance he has produced a reprint, such as a reprint of curious old books should be.

The Preface.

THe finging of Pfalmes, though it breath forth nothing but holy harmony, and melody: yet such is the subtilty of the enemie, and the enmity of our nature against the Lord, & his wayes, that our hearts can finde matter of discord in this harmony, and crotchets of division in this holy melody.-for- There have been three questiōs especially stirrīg cōcerning finging. First. what psalmes are to be sung in churches? whether Davids and other scripture psalmes, or the psalmes invented by the gifts of godly men in every age of the church. Secondly, if scripture psalmes, whether in their owne words, or in such meter as english poetry is wont to run in? Thirdly by whom are they to be sung? whether by the whole churches together with their voices? or by one man singing alōe and the rest joynīg in silēce,& in the close sayīg amen.

Touching the first, certainly the finging of Davids psalmes was an acceptable worship of God, not only in his owne, but in succeeding times. as in Solomons time 2 Chron. 5. 13. in Iehosaphats time 2 chron. 20. 21. in Ezra his time Ezra 3. 10, 11. and the text is evident in Hezekiahs time they are commanded to sing praise in the words of David and Asaph, 2 chron. 29, 30. which one place may serve to resolve two of the questions (the first and the last) at once. for this commandement was it cerimoniall or morall? some things in it indeed were cerimoniall, as their musicall instruments &c but what ceremony was there in singing prayse with the words of David and Asaph? what if David was a type of Christ, was Asaph also? was every thing of David typicall? are his words (which are of morall, universall, and perpetuall authority in all nations and ages) are they typicall? what type can be imagined in making use of his songs to prayse the Lord? If they were typicall because the ceremony of musicall instruments was joyned with them, then their prayers were also typicall, because they had that ceremony of incense admixt with them: but wee know that prayer then was a morall duty, notwithstanding the incense; and soe singing those psalmes notwithstanding their musicall instruments. Beside, that which was typicall (as that they were sung with musicall instruments, by the twenty-foure orders of Priests and Levites. 1 chron 25. 9.) must have the morall and spirituall accomplishment in the new Testament, in all the Churches of the Saints principally, who are made kings & priests Reu. 1. 6. and are the first fruits unto God. Reu. 14. 4. as the Levites were Num. 3. 45. with hearts & lippes, in stead of musicall instruments, to prayse the Lord; who are set forth (as some iudiciously thinke) Reu. 4. 4. by twēty foure Elders, in the ripe age of the Church, Gal. 4. 1, 2, 3. answering to the twenty foure orders of Priests and Levites 1 chron. 25. 9. Therefore not some select members members, but the whole Church is commaund-ed to teach one another in all the severall sorts of Davids psalmes, some being called by himselfe מְזוֹמְרִים : psalms, some תְּהִלִּים : Hymns some שִׁירִים : spirituall songs. soe that if the singing Davids psalmes be a morall duty & therfore perpetuall; then wee under the new Testamēt are bound to sing them as well as they under the old: and if wee are expresly commanded to sing Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall songs, then either wee must sing Davids psalmes, or else may affirm they are not spirituall songs: which being penned by an extraordinary gift of the Spirit, for the sake especially of Gods spirtuall Israell; not to be read and preached only (as other parts of holy writ) but to be sung also, they are therefore most spirituall, and still to be sung of all the Israell of God: and verily as their sin is exceeding great, who will allow Davids psalmes (as other scriptures) to be read in churches (which is one end) but not to be preached also, (which is another end soe their sin is crying before God, who will allow them to be read and preached, but seeke to deprive the Lord of the glory of the third end of them, which is to sing them in christian churches.

 obj. 1 If it be sayd that the Saints in the primitive Church did compile spirituall songs of their owne inditing, and sing them before the Church.
 1 Cor. 14, 15, 16.

Ans. We answer first, that those Saints compiled these spirituall songs by the extraordinary gifts of the spirit (common in those dayes) whereby they were enabled to praise the Lord in strange tongues, wherein learned Paræus proves those psalmes were uttered, in his Commēt on that place uers 14 which extraordinary gifts, if they were still in the Churches, wee should allow them the like liberty now. Secondly, suppose those psalmes were sung by an ordinary gift (which wee suppose cannot be evicted) doth it therefore follow that they did not, & that we ought not to sing Davids psalmes? must the ordinary gifts of a private man quench the spirit still speaking to us by the extraordinary gifts of his servant David? there is not the least foot-step of example, or precept, or colour reason for such a bold practise.
 * 3 the

obj. 2. Ministers are allowed to pray conceived prayers, and why not to sing conceived psalmes? must wee not sing in the spirit as well as pray in the spirit?

Ans. First because every good minister hath not a gift of spirituall poetry to compose extemporary psalmes as he hath of prayer. Secondly. Suppose he had, yet seeing psalmes are to be sung by a joynt consent and harmony of all the Church in heart and voyce (as wee shall prove) this cannot be done except he that composeth a psalme, bringeth into the Church set formes of psalmes of his owne invētion; for which wee finde no warrant or president in any ordinary officers of the Church throughout the scriptures. Thirdly. Because the booke of psalmes is so compleat a System of psalmes

psalmes, which the Holy-Ghost himfelfe in infinite wifdome hath made to fuit all the conditions, neceffities, temptations, affections, &c. of men in all ages; (as moft of all our interpreters on the psalmes have fully and perticularly cleared) there fore by this the Lord feemeth to stoppe all mens mouths and mindes ordinarily to compile or fing any other psalmes (under colour that the occasions and conditions of the Church are new) &c. for the publick use of the Church, feing, let our condition be what it will, the Lord himfelfe hath fupplied us with farre better; and therefore in Hezekiahs time, though doubtlesse there were among them thofe which had extraoridnary gifts to compile new fongs on thofe new occasions, as Ifaiah and Micah &c. yet wee read that they are commanded to fing in the words of David and Afaph, which were ordinarily to be used in the publick worship of God: and wee doubt not but thofe that are wife will easily fee; that thofe fet formes of psalmes of Gods owne appoyntment not of mans conceived gift or humane imposition were fung in the Spirit by thofe holy Levites, as well as their prayers were in the spirit which themselves conceived, the Lord not then binding them therein to any fet formes; and shall fet formes of psalmes appoynted of God not be fung in the spirit now, which others did then?

Question. But why may not one cōpofe a psalme & fing it alone with a loud voice & the rest joyne with

The.

with him in silence and in the end say Amen?

Ans. If such a practise was found in the Church of Corinth, when any had a psalme suggested by an extraordinary gift; yet in singing ordinary psalmes the whole Church is to ioyne together in heart and voyce to prayse the Lord. -for-

First. Davids psalmes as hath beene shewed, were sung in heart and voyce together by the twenty foure orders of the musicians of the Temple, who typed out the twenty foure Elders all the members especially of christian Churches Reu 5. 8. who are made Kings and Priests to God to prayse him as they did: for if there were any other order of singing Choristers beside the body of the people to succeed those, the Lord would doubtlesse have given direction in the gospell for their quallification, election, maintainance &c. as he did for the musicians of the Temple, and as his faithfullnes hath done for all other church officers in the new Testament.

Secondly. Others beside the Levites (the chiefe Singers) in the Iewish Church did also sing the Lords songs; else why are they commanded frequently to sing: as in ps. 100, 1, 2, 3. ps. 95, 1, 2, 3. ps. 102. title. with vers 18. & Ex. 15. 1. not only Moses but all Israell sang that song, they spake saying (as it is in the orig.) all as well as Moses, the women also as well as the men. v. 20 21. and deut. 32. (whereto some thinke, Iohn had reference as well as Ex. 15. 1. when he brings in the protestant Churches getting the victory over the Beast

Preface.

Beast with harps in their hands and singing the song of Moses. Reu. 15. 3.) this song Moses is commanded not only to put it into their hearts but into their mouths also: deut. 31. 19. which argues, they were with their mouths to sing it together as well as with their hearts.

Thirdly. Isaiah foretells in the dayes of the new-Testament that Gods watchmen and desolate loft foules, (signified by wast places) should with their voices sing together, Isa. 52. 8, 9. and Reu. 7. 9, 10. the song of the Lamb was by many together, and the Apostle expressly commands the singing of Psalmes, Himnes, &c. not to any select christians, but to the whole Church Eph. 5. 19 coll. 3. 16. Paule & Silas sang together in private Acts. 16. 25. and must the publick heare oly one man sing? to all these wee may adde the practise of the primitive Churches; the testimony of ancient and holy Basil is in stead of many Epist. 63 When one of us (saith he) hath begun a psalme, the rest of us set in to sing with him, all of us with one heart and one voyce; and this saith he is the common practise of the Churches in Egypt, Lybia, Thebes, Palestina, Syria and those that dwell on Euphrates, and generally every where, where singing of psalmes is of any account. To the same putpose also Eusebius gives witnes, Eccles. Hist. lib. 2. cap. 17. The objections made against this doe most of them plead against joyn-ing to sing in heart as well as in voyce, as that by this meanes others out of the Church will sing

as also that wee are not alway in a futable estate to the matter sung, & likewise that all cannot sing with understanding; shall not therefore all that have understanding ioyne in heart and voyce together? are not all the creatures in heaven, earth, seas: men, beasts, fishes, foules &c. commanded to praise the Lord, and yet none of these but men, and godly men too, can doe it with spirituall understanding?

As for the scruple that some take at the translation of the book of psalmes into meeter, because Davids psalmes were sung in his owne words without meeter: wee answer- First. There are many verses together in several psalmes of David which run in rithmes (as those that know the hebrew and as Buxtorf shews Thesau. pa. 629.) which shews at least the lawfullnes of singing psalmes in english rithmes.

Secondly. The psalmes are penned in such verses as are futable to the poetry of the hebrew language, and not in the common style of such other bookes of the old Testament as are not poetically; now no protestant doubteth but that all the bookes of the scripture should by Gods ordinance be extant in the mother tongue of each nation, that they may be understood of all, hence the psalmes are to be translated into our english tongue; and if in our english tongue wee are to sing them, then as all our english songs (according to the course of our english poetry) do run in metre, soe ought Davids psalmes to be translated into

into meeter, that foe wee may fing the Lords songs, as in our english tongue foe in such verses as are familiar to an english eare which are commonly metricall: and as it can be no just offence to any good conscience to sing Davids hebrew songs in english words, foe neither to sing his poetickall verses in english poetickall metre: men might as well stumble at singing the hebrew psalmes in our english tunes (and not in the hebrew tunes) as at singing them in english meeter, (which are our verses) and not in such verses as are generally used by David according to the poetry of the hebrew language: but the truth is, as the Lord hath hid from us the hebrew tunes, lest wee should think our selves bound to imitate them; foe also the course and frame (for the most part) of their hebrew poetry, that wee might not think our selves bound to imitate that, but that every nation without scruple might follow as the graver sort of tunes of their owne country songs, foe the graver sort of verses of their owne country poetry.

Neither let any think, that for the meetre sake wee have taken liberty or poetickall licence to depart from the true and proper sence of Davids words in the hebrew verses, noe; but it hath beene one part of our religious care and faithfull indeavour, to keepe close to the originall text.

As for other obiections taken from the difficulty of Ainsworths tunes, and the corruptions in our common psalme books, wee hope they are answered in this new edition of psalmes which wee here present to God and his Churches. For although wee have cause to blesse God in many respects for the religious indeavours of the translators of the psalmes into meetre usually annexed to our Bibles, yet it is not unknowne to the godly learned that they have rather presented a paraphrase then the words of David translated according to the rule 2 ckron. 29. 30. and that their addition to the words, detractions from the words are not feldome and rare, but very frequent and many times needles, (which we suppose would not be approved of if the psalmes were so translated into prose) and that their variations of the sense, and alterations of the sacred text too frequently, may iustly minister matter of offence to them that are able to compare the translation with the text; of which failings, some iudicious have oft complained, others have been grieved, wherupon it hath bin generally desired, that as wee doe inioye other, soe (if it were the Lords will) wee might inioye this ordinance also in its native purity: wee have therefore done our indeavour to make a plaine and familiar translation of the psalmes and words of David into english metre, and have not soe much as presumed to paraphrase to give the sense of his meaning in other words; we have therefore attended heerin as our chief guide the originall, shuning all additions, except such as even the best translators translators of them in prose supply, avoiding all materiall detractions from words or sence. The word and which wee translate and as it is redundant sometime in the Hebrew, soe sometime (though not very often) it hath been left out, and yet not then, if the sence were not faire without it.

The.

Preface.

As for our translations, wee have with our english Bibles (to which next to the Originall wee have had respect) used the Idioms of our owne tongue in stead of Hebraismes, lest they might seeme english barbarismes.

Synonimaes wee use indifferently: as folk for people, and Lord for Iehovah, and sometime (though seldome) God for Iehovah; for which (as for some other interpretations of places cited in the new Testament) we have the scriptures authority pf. 14. with 53. Heb. 1. 6. with psalme 97. 7. Where a phrase is doubtfull wee have followed that which (in our owne apprehensiō) is most genuine & edifying:

Sometime wee have contracted, sometime dilated the same hebrew word, both for the sence and the verse sake: which dilatation wee conceive to be no paraphrasticall addition no more then the contraction of a true and full translation to be any unfaithfull detraction or diminution: as when wee dilate who healeth and say he it is who healeth; soe when wee contract, those that stand in awe of God and say Gods fearers.

Lastly. Because some hebrew words have a more full and emphaticall signification then any one english word can or doth somtime expresse, hence wee have done that somtime which faithfull translators may doe, viz. not only to translate the word but the emphasif of it; as אל mighty God, for God. כבוד kumbly blesse for blesse; rise to stand, psalm 1. for stand truth and faithfullnes for truth. Howbeit, for the verse sake wee doe not alway thus, yet wee render the word truly though not fully; as when wee somtime say reioyce for shout for ioye.

As for all other changes of numbers, tenses, and characters of speech, they are such as either the hebrew will unforcedly beare, or our english forceably calls for, or they no way change the fence; and such are printed usually in an other character.

If therefore the verses are not alwayes so smooth and elegant as some may desire or expect; let them consider that Gods Altar needs not our pollishings: Ex. 20. for wee have respected rather a plaine translation, then to smooth our verses with the sweetnes of any paraphrase, and soe have attended Conscience rather then Elegance, fidelity rather then poetry, in translating the hebrew words into english language, and Davids poetry into english meetre; that

PSALME I

- O Blessed man, that in th'advice of wicked doeth not walk:
nor stand in finners way, nor sit in chayre of scornfull folk.
- 2 But in the law of Iehovah, is his longing delight:
aud in his law doth meditate,

- 3 And he shall be like to a tree that in his season yeilds his fruit, and his leafe never withers.

- 4 And all he doth, shall prosper well,
the wicked are not so:
but they are like vnto the chaffe, which winde drives to and fro.
- 5 Therefore shall not ungodly men, rise to stand in the doome, nor shall the finners with the just,
in their assemblie come.
- 6 For of the righteous men, the Lord acknowledgeth the way:
but the way of vngodly men,

Iehovah judge thou me.
according to my righteousnesse,

9 Let ill mens malice cease, but doe the just confirme,
for thou who art the righteous God:

11 The God that doth the righteous judge, yet daily kindleth wrath.
12 If he doe not returne, his sword he sharp will whet:
his bow he bended hath, and he
the same hath ready set.
13 For him he hath prepar'd the instruments of death, for them that hotly persecute, his arrows he sharpneth.
14 Behold he travelleth of vaine iniquity:
a toylefome mischeife he conceiv'd, but shall bring forth a lye.

for his just equity;
and I will sing unto the name of Iehovah most high.

Psalme 8

To the chiefe Musician upon Gittith,
a psalme of David.

O LORD our God in all the earth how's thy name wondrous great:
who hast thy glorious majesty above the heavens set.

2 out of the mouth of sucking babes.
thy strength thou didst ordeine, that thou mightst still the enemy, and them that thee disdain.

3 when I thy fingers work, thy Heav'ns, the moone and starres consider:

that thou dost him remember?
or what's the Son of man, that thus him visited thou hast?

5 For next to Angells, thou hast him a litle lower plac't and hast with glory crowned him, and comely majesty:

PSALM VIII, IX.

7 All hast thou put under his feet;
all sheep and oxen, yea and fishes of the sea;

and all that passe through paths of seas.
9 O Iehovah our Lord, how wondrously-magnificent is thy name through the world?

Psalme 9

To the chiefe Musician upon Muth-Labben
a psalme of David

LORD I'le the prayse, with all my heart; thy wonders all proclaime.

- 2 I will be glad and joy in thee;
most high, I'le sing thy name.
3 In turning back my foes, they'le fall and perish at thy sight.
4 For thou maintaines my right,& cause:
In throne sits judging right.
5 Thou t' heathen checkst, & th'wicked stroyd;
their names raz'd ever aye.
6 Thy ruines,foe, for aye are done;
thou madst their townes decaye;
their memory with them is lost.
7 Yet ever sits the Lord:
his throne to judgement he prepares.
8 With right he'l judge the world:
he to the folke shall minister judgement in uprightnesse.

PSALME 1X

- 9 The Lord is for th'oprest a fort:
 a fort in times of streffe.
 10 Who knowes thy name, will trust in thee:
 nor dost thou, Lord forsake, 11 them that thee seek. Psalmes, to the Lord that dwells in Sion, make:
 declare among the folk his works.
 12 For blood when he doth seeke, he them remembers: nor forgets the crying of the meeke.

- 13 Iehovah, mercy on me have,
 from them that doe me hate marke mine afflictions that arise, thou lift'st me from deaths-gate.
 14 That I may tell in the gates of the Daughter of Sion,

 in thy salvation.
 15 The heathen are sunk downe into the pit that they had made:
 their owne foot taken is ith'net which privily they layd.
 16 By judgement which he executes Iehovah is made knowne:

 all lands that God forget.

Psalme 10

WHy standst thou Lord a far? why hyd'st thy selfe in times of streight?

- 2 In pride the wicked persecutes
 the poore afflicted wight:

 3 For of his hearts desire the wicked boasts, and covetous

 4 The wicked one by reason of his countenances pride will not seek after God: not God so all his thoughts abide.

- 10 Downe doth he crowtch,& to the dust that so a multitude of poore in his strong pawes may fall.

- 11 He faith in heart, God hath forgot:
he hides his face away,
so that he will not see this thing

- 12 Iehovah rise thou up,o God lift thou thine hand on hy, let not the meek afflicted one

- 13 Wherefore doth the ungodly man contemne th' almighty one?
he in his heart faith, thou wilt not make inquisition.
- 14 Thou seeest,for thou markst wrong,& spight,
with thy hand to repay:
the poore leavs it to thee,thou art of fatherlesse the stay.
- 15 Break thou the arme of the wicked, and of the evil one.
search thou out his impiety, untill thou findest none.

PSALM X, XI.

- 16 Iehovah king for ever is,
and to eternall aye:
out of his land the heathen folke thou makst attent thine eare.

that ad no more he may

Pfalme 11

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of David.

- In the Lord do trust; how then to my soule doe ye say, as doth a litle bird unto your mountaine flye away?
- 2 For loe, the wicked bend their bow, their arrows they prepare on string; to shoot in dark at them in heart that upright are.
- 3 If that the firme foundationes, as for the man that righteous is,

what then performe can hee?
- 4 The Lord in's holy temple is,
the Lords throne in heaven:
his eyes will view, and his eye lids will prove the Sonnes of men.

PSALME XI, XII.

- 5 The man that truly-righteous is ev'n him the Lord will prove;
his soule the wicked hates,& him that violence doth love.
- 6 Snares, fire, & brimstone he will raine,
ungodly men upon:
and burning tempest; of their cup

- 7 For Iehovah that righteous is,
all righteousnesse doth love:
his countenane the upright one beholding, doth approve.

Pfalme 12

To the chiefe Musician upon Sheminith
a psalme of David.

HElpe Lord: for godly men doe cease:
faithfull faile men among.

- 2 Each to his freind speaks vanity;
with flattring lips, and tongue and with a double heart they speake.
- 3 All flatt'ring lips the Lord shall cut them of, with every tongue that speaketh boasting word.
- 4 Thus have they sayd, we with our tongue, prevailing pow're shall get:
are not our lips our owne. for Lord who over us is set?
- 5 Thus saith the Lord, for sighs of them that want, for poor opprest, I'le now arise, from such as puffe, will set him safe at rest.

PSALM XII, XIII.

- 6 Pure are the words the Lord doth speak:
as silver that is tryde in earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purifyde.
- 7 Thou shalt them keep, o Lord, thou shalt

For evermore in safety from this generation.
- 8 The wicked men on evry side

Pfalme 13

To the chiefe Musician: a psalme

how long wilt thou thy countenance how long shall be my foe?

- 3 Iehovah, o my God,
behold me answer make,
Illuminate mine eyes, lest I the sleepe of death doe take.
- 4 Lest my foe say, I have.

those who doe trouble, doe rejoyce, when I shall moved bee.

PSALME x III, x IIII.

- 5 But I asured trust

my heart in thy saluation

- 6 Vnto Iehovah I will sing, because that hee, for evil bountifully hath rewarded good to mee.

Psalme 14

To the chiefe Musician a psalme-
of Dauid.

THe foole in's heart faith ther's no God:
they are corrupt, have done abominable-practises, that doth good there is none.

- 2 The Lord from heaven looked downe on Sonnes of men: to see, if any that doth understand, that seeketh God there bee.

- 3 All are gone back, together they ev'n filthy are become:
and there is none that doeth good,
noe not so much as one.

- 4 The workers of iniquities, have they no knowledge all?
that eate my people: they eate bread, and on God doe not call.

affrighted fore they were,
for God in generation is of such as righteous are.

Pfalme 15

A psalme of David.

- IEHOVAH, who shall in thy tent sojourne, and who is hee shall dwell within thy holy mount?
- 2 He that walks uprightlie,
And worketh justice, and speaks truth

he doth not slander, neither doth unto his neighbour wrong, And 'gainst his neighbour that doth not take up reproachfull lyes.
- 4 Hee that an abject person is contemn'd is in his eyes;
But he will highly honour them that doe Iehovah feare:
and changeth not, though to his losse,

PSALME XVI.

Pfalme 16

Michtam of David

O Mighty God, preserve thou mee, for on thee doe I rest.

2 Thou art my God, vnto the Lord my soule thou hast profest:

My goodnes reacheth not to thee.

3 But to the Saints upon the earth & to the excellent, whome all my joye is on.

4 They who give gifts to a strange God, their sorrowes multiplye:
their drink oblations of blood offer up will not I.

Neither will I into my lips
the names of them take up.

5 Iehovah is the portion of my part, & my cup:
Thou art maintainer of my lot.

6 To me the lines fal'n bee in pleasant places: yea, faire is the heritage for mee.

7 I will Iehovah humbly-bleffe, who hath mee counselled:
yea in the nights my reines have mee, chastising nurtured.

8 Iehovah I have alwayes set as present before mee:
because he is at my right hand
I shall not moved bee.

9 Wherefore my heart rejoyced hath,

PSALM XVI, XVII.

- and glad is my glory:
moreover also my flesh shall in hope lodge securely.
10 Because thou wilt not leave my soule within the grave to bee, nor wilt thou give thine holy one, corruption for to see.
11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life, of joyes abundant-store before thy face, at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

Pfalme 17

A Prayer of David.

- HArken, o Lord, unto the right, attend vnto my crye,
give eare vnto my pray'r, that goes from lips that doe not lye.
2 From thy face let my judgement come:
thine eyes the right let see.
3 Thou provst mine heart, thou visitest by night, and tryest mee.
yet nothing find'st, I have resolv'd my mouth shall not offend.
4 From mens works: by word of thy lips
I spoylers paths attend.
5 Stay my feet in thy paths, lest my for thou wilt heare, God, heare my speech, incline thine eare to mee.

- 10 Clof'd in their fat they are: & they speake with their mouth proudly.
- 11 They round us in our stepps: they set on earth their bow'd downe eye.
- 12 His likenes as a lion is,
that greedy is to teare,
in secret places lurking as

- 13 Him, in his sight, rise, disappoynt make him bow downe o Lord, doe thou my soule deliver from the wicked one, thy sword,
- 14 From mortall men thine hand, o Lord,
from men that mortall are,
and of this passing-world, who have within this life their share, with thy hid treasure furthermore whose belly thou fillest:
their sonnes are fil'd, & to their babes of wealth they leave the rest.
- 15 In righteousnes, thy favour I shall very clearely see, and waking with thine image, I shall satisfied bee.

PSALM XVIII

Pfalme 18

To the chiefe Mufician, a pfalme of Daud, the fervant of the Lord, who fpake the words of this Song, in the day that the Lord deliuered him from the hands of all his enemies, & from the hand of Saule. and hee Sayde, the ſnares of death prevented mee.

from his temple my voyce, my crye, and from his mouth devouring fire:

By it the coales inkindled were.

 within the heavens, the most high hayl-stones, and coales of fire did fly.

- 14 Yea he did out his arrows send,
 and bruising he them scattered,
 and lightnings hee did multiply, likewise he them discomfited.
- 15 The waters channels then were seene, and the foundationes of the world appear'd; at thy rebuke, at blast, of the breath of thy nostrils Lord.

 me out of waters-great he drew.

 them which me hated did rescue:
 For they were mighty then I.

 of my cloudy calamity;
 but for me was the Lord a stay.

23 With him I upright was, and kept my selfe from mine iniquitie.
24 The Lord hath recompenced mee, after my righteousnes therefore:
according to the cleanness of my hands that was his eyes before.
25 With mercifull, thou mercifull, with upright thou deales uprightly.
26 With pure thou pure, thou also wilt with froward turne thy selfe awry.

28 For thou wilt light my lampe: the Lord, my God will lighten my darkness.
29 For by the I rann through a troupe,

31 For who is God except the Lord? or who a rock, our God except?

Psalme 19

To the chiefe Musician a psalme of David.

the judgements of the Lord are true,

Psalme 20

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of David.

IEHOVAH heare thee in the day of sore calamity,
the name of the God of Iacob defend thee mightily.

- 2 Send thee help from his holy place:
from Sion strengthen thee.

with singing joy we will:
And we in the name of our God our banners will erect:
when as all thy petitions Iehovah shall effect.

- 6 Now I know, that Iehovah doth save his annoynted-Deare:
with saving strength of his right hand from his pure heav'n will heare.

of goodnes prevent him:
thou on his head of finest gold to him thou gav'st it free, even length of days for evermore that are thine enemies: thy right hand also shall finde out those that doe thee despise.

- 9 Thou setst as fiery oven them in times of thine ire:
the Lord will swallow them in's wrath and them consume with fire.
- 10 Thou wilt destroy the fruit, that doth proceed of them, out of the earth: & their seed from among the Sonnes of men.
- 11 Because they evill have intended against thee:
a wicked plot they have devised, but shall not able bee.

them set; & thou wilt place

To the chiefe musician upon Aijeleth Shabar
a psalme of David.

MY God, my God, wherefore hast thou forsaken mee? & why,
art thou so farre from helping mee,
from the words of my cry?

2 O my God, I doe cry by day, but mee thou dost not heare;
and eke by night, & unto mee
no quiet rest is there.

3 Neverthelesse thou holy art, who constantly dost dwell, within the thankfull prayes of thy people Israell.

4 Our fore-fathers in thee have put assured confidence:
they trusted have, & thou to them didst give deliverance.

5 Vnto thee they did cry aloud, and were delivered:
in thee they put their confidence,
and were not confounded.

6 But I a worme, & not a man;
of men an opprobrie,
and also of the people am despis'd contemptuously.

7 All they that doe upon mee look,
a scoffe at mee doe make:
they with the lip doe make a mow,
the head in scorne they shake.

PSALM XXII.

8 Vpon the Lord he rold himfelfe, let him now rid him quite:
let him deliver him, becaufe in him he doth delight.

9 But thou art hee that me out of the belly forth didft take:
when I was on my mothers breasts, to hope thou didft mee make.

10 Vnto thee from the tender-womb committed been have I: yea thou haft been my mighty-God from my mothers belly.

11 Be thou not farre away from mee, for tribulation
exceeding great is neere at hand, for helper there is none.

12 Mee many buls on every fide about have compaffed:
the mighty- buls of Bashan have mee round invironed.

13 They have with their wide-opened-mouths fo gaped mee upon;
like as it were a ravening and a roaring Lion.

14 As water I am poured-out, and all my bones fundred:
my heart in midft of my bowels, is like to wax melted.

15 My ftrength like a potfherd is dryde;
and my tongue faft cleaveth me to the duft of death.

16 For dogs have compaft me about;
th' affembly me befet
of the wicked; they pierced through my hands, alfo my feet.

17 My bones I may them number all:
they lookt,they did me view.

18 My cloths among them they did part:
and lot for my coat threw.

19 But thou Lord be not far, my ftrengh, to help me haften thou.

20 My foule from fword,my darling from the powre of dogs refcue.

21 And from the mouth of the Lion give me falvation free:
for thou from hornes of Vnicornes answer haft given mee.

22 Thy name,I will declare to them that Brethren are to mee:
in midft of congregation
I will give prayfe to thee.

PSALM xxii, xxiii.

- 25 Concerning thee shall be my prayse
in the great assembly:
before them that him reverence performe my vowes will I.
- 26 The meek shall eat & be suffic'd: Iehovah prayse shall they that doe him seek: your heart shall live unto perpetuall aye.
- 27 All ends of th'earth remember shall
and turne unto the Lord:
and thee all heathen-families to worship shall accord.
- 28 Because unto Iehovah doth
the kingdome appertaine:
and he among the nations is ruler Soveraigne.
- 29 Earths-fat-ones, eat & worship shall:
all who to dust descend, (though none can make alive his foule) before his face shall bend.
- 30 With service a posterity him shall attend upon;
to God it shall accounted bee
a generation.
- 31 Come shall they, & his righteousnes
by them declar'd shall bee, unto a people yet unborne, that done this thing hath hee.
- 23 A Psalm of David.

THe Lord to mee a shepheard is,
want therefore shall not I.

PSALME xx iii, xx iiii.

- 2 Hee in the folds of tender-grasse, doth cause mee downe to lie:
To waters calme me gently leads
- 3 Restore my soule doth hee:
he doth in paths of righteousnes:
for his names sake leade mee.
- 4 Yea though in valley of deaths shade
I walk, none ill I'le feare:
because thou art with mee, thy rod, and staffe my comfort are.
- 5 For mee a table thou hast spread,
in presence of my foes:
thou dost annoynt my head with oyle,
my cup it over-flowes.
- 6 Goodnes & mercy surely shall
all my dayes follow mee:
and in the Lords house I shall dwell so long as dayes shall bee.

Psalme 24

A psalme of david.

THe earth Iehovahs is,
and the fulnesse of it:
the habitable world, & they that there upon doe sit.

and it upon the water-floods most sollidly hath stayd.

who shall thereto ascend?
and in his place of holynes,

PSALM XXIII.

- who is it that shall stand?
- 4 The cleane in hands, & pure in heart; to vanity who hath not lifted up his soule, nor sworne deceitfully.
- 5 From God he shall receive a benediction,
and righteousnes from the strong-God of his salvation.
- 6 This is the progenie
of them that seek thy face:
of them that doe inquire for him:
of Iacob 'tis the race. Selah.
- 7 Yee gates lift-up your heads,
and doors everlasting,
be yee lift up: & there into
shall come the glorious-King.
- 8 Who is this glorious King?
Iehovah, puissant, and valiant, Iehovah is in battel valiant.
- 9 Yee gates lift-up your heads,
and doors everlasting,
doe yee lift-up: & there into
shall come the glorious-King.
- 10 Who is this glorious-King?
loe, it is Iehovah of warlike armies, hee the King of glory is; Selah.

PSALME XXV.

- I Lift my foule to thee O Lord.
My God I trust in thee, let mee not be asham'd: nor let my foes joy over mee.
- 3 Yea,all that wait on thee shall not,
be fill'd with shamefulness:
but they shall be ashamed all,
who without cause transgresse.
- 4 Thy wayes,Iehovah,make mee know, thy paths make me discern.
- 5 Cause mee my steps to order well,
in thy truth, & mee learne,
For thou God of my saving health,
on thee I wait all day.
- 6 Thy bowels, Lord, & thy mercyes minde; for they are for aye.
- 7 Sinnes of my youth remember not,
neither my trespasses:
after thy mercy minde thou mee
o Lord for thy goodnes.
- 8 Good and upright God is, therefore will finners teach the way.
- 9 The meek he'le guide in judgement: & will teach the meek his way.

all of them truth also;
to them that keep his covenant,
and testimonies do.

14 The secret of God is with those that doe him reverence:

and of his covenant he them

15 Mine eyes continually are upon Iehovah set:

for it is hee that will bring forth
my feet out of the net.

16 Vnto me-wards turne thou thy face, and on mee mercy show:

because I solitary am afflicted poore also.

17 My hearts troubles enlarged are;
from my distresse me bring.

18 See mine affliction,& my paine; and pardon all my sin.

19 Mark my foes; for they many are,
and cruelly mee hate,

20 My soule keep,free mee; nor let mee be sham'd,who on thee wait.

21 Let soundnes,& uprightnesse keep mee: for I trust in thee.

22 Israel from his troubles all,
o God, doe thou set free.

in mine integrity:

and I have trusted in the Lord, therefore flyde shall not I.

2 Examine mee, Lord, & mee prove;
my reins, & my heart try.

3 For thy grace is before mine eyes;
and in thy truth walk I.

4 I fat not with vaine men, nor goe with men themselves that hide.

5 Evill mens company I hate:
nor will with vile abide.

6 In cleanneffe, Lord, I'le wash mine hands, for I'le thine altar round:

7 That I may preach with thankfull-voyce, and all thy prayfes sound.

8 The habitation of thy house, Lord, dearly love doe I,
the place and tabernacle of thy glorious majesty.

9 My soule with sinners gather not,
with men of blood my life.

10 In whose hand's guile, in whose right hand bribery is full rife.

11 Redeeme, & pittie mee, for I'le walk in mine uprightnesse.

PSALM XXV¹¹.

- The Lord is my lifes-strength, of whom should I then be afraid?
- 2 When wicked men, mine enemies, and my foes in battel;
against mee come, to eate my flesh, themselves stumbled & fell.
- 3 If that an hosta against mee camp,
my heart undaunted is:
if war against mee should arise,
I am secure in this.
- 4 One thing of God I asked have,
which I will still request:
that I may in the house of God,
all dayes of my life rest:
To see the beauty of the Lord,
and in his Temple seeke.
- 5 For in his tent in th'evill-day, hidden hee will mee keepe:
Hee will me hide in secrecy of his pavillion:
and will me highly lift upon the rocks-munition.
- 6 Moreover at this-time my head lifted on high shall bee, above mine enemies, who doe about encompasse mee.
Therefore in's tent I'le sacrifice, of joye an offering,
unto Iehovah, sing will I, yea, I will prayes sing.

- 8 When thou didst say, seek yee my face,
my heart sayd unto thee,
thy countenance,o Iehovah,

- 9 Hide not thy face from mee, nor off in wrath thy fervant cast: God of my health, leave, leave not mee,
my helper been thou hast.
- 10 My father & my mother both though they doe mee forsake, yet will Iehovah gathering unto himselfe me take.
- 11 Iehovah, teach thou mee the way, and be a guide to mee
in righteous path, because of them

- 12 Give mee not up unto the will of my streight-enemies:
for witnesse false against me stand,
and breath out cruelties.
- 13 I should haue fainted, had not I believed for to see, Iehovahs goodnes in the land of them that living bee.

A psalme of David.

- IEHOVAH, unto thee I cry,
my Rock, be thou not deafe me fro:
lest thou be dumb from mee & I be like them downe to pit that go.
- 2 Heare thou the voyce of my request for grace, when unto thee I cry: when I lift up mine hands unto thine Oracle of Sanctity.
- 3 With ill men draw me not away, with workers of unrighteousnes, that with their neighbours peace doe speak,
but in their hands is wickednes.
- 4 Give thou to them like to their works and like the evill of their deeds:
give them like to their handy-works, and render unto them their meeds.
- 5 Because unto Iehovahs work they did not wise-attention yeild, neither unto his handy work, them he will waite, but not up-build.
- 6 The Lord be blest, for he hath heard the voyce of my requests for grace.
- 7 God is my strength, my shield, in him my heart did trust, & helpt I was:
Therefore my heart will gladnes shew,
and with my song I'll him confesse.

A psalme of David.

VNto the Lord doe yee ascribe (o Sonnes of the mighty) unto the Lord doe yee ascribe

- 2 Vnto the Lord doe yee ascribe his names glorious renowne, in beauty of his holynes

- 3 The mighty voyce of Iehovah upon the waters is:
the God of glory thundereth, God on great waters is.

- 4 Iehovahs voyce is powerfull, Gods voyce is glorious,

- 5 Gods voyce breaks Cedars: yea God breaks Cedars of Lebanus.

- 6 He makes them like a calfe to skip:

and like to a young Vnicorne the hill of Syron.

- 7 Gods voyce divides the flames of fire.
8 Iehovahs voyce doth make the defart shake: the Lord doth cause the Cadesh-defart shake.
9 The Lords voyce makes the hinds to calve, and makes the Forrest bare:
and in his temple every one his glory doth declare.
10 The Lord sate on the fouds: the Lord for ever sits as King.
11 God to his folk gives strength: the Lord

Pfalme 30

A Psalme & Song, at the dedication of the house of David.

- IEHOVAH, I will thee extoll, for thou hast lift up mee;
and over mee thou hast not made

2 O Lord my God, to thee I cry'de and thou hast made mee whole.
3 Out of the grave, o Iehovah, thou hast brought up my soule:
Thou mad'st mee live, I went not downe

- 7 Lord by thy favour thou hast made my mountaine stand fast ever:
Thou hidst thy face, I troubled was.
- 8 I unto thee did cry,
o Lord: also my humble suit unto the Lord made I.
- 9 What gaine is in my blood; when I
into the pit goe downe?
shall dust give glory unto thee?
shall it thy truth make knowne?
- 10 Doe thou mee o Iehovah, heare, and on mee mercy have:
Iehovah, o bee thou to mee an helper me to save.
- 11 Thou into dancing for my sake converted hast my sadnes:
my sackcloth thou unloofed hast,
and girded me with gladnes:
- 12 That sing to thee my glory may,
and may not silent bee:
o Lord my God, I will give thanks for evermore to thee.

PSALM xxxi.

- IN thee, o Lord, I put my trust, let me be shamed never:
according to thy righteousnes
o doe thou mee deliver.
- 2 Bow downe to mee thine eare, with speed let mee deliverance have:
be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence mee to save.
- 3 Because thou unto mee a rock and my fortresse wilt bee:
therefore for thy names sake doe thou, leade mee & guide thou mee.
- 4 Doe thou mee pull out of the net, which they have for mee layd so privily: because that thou art to mee a sure ayd.
- 5 Into thy hands my spirit I reposing doe commit:
Iehovah God of verity,
thou hast redeemed it.
- 6 I hated them that have regard to lying vanity:
but I in God trust. I'le be glad,
and joy in thy mercy:
because thou hast considered
my afflicting distresse;
thou hast my soule acknowledged in painfull angishes;
- 8 And thou hast not inclosed mee within the enemies hand:
thou mad'st my feet within the place

- 9 Have mercy upon mee, o Lord, for in distresse am I,
with grief mine eye consumed is,
my soule & my belly.
- 10 For my life with grief & my years with sighs are consumed:
because of my sin, my strength failes,
and my bones are wasted.
- 11 To all my foes I was a scorne, chiefly my neighbours to;
a feare to freinds: they that saw mee without, did flye me fro.
- 12 I am forgot as a dead man that's out of memory:
and like a vessel that is broke ev'n such a one am I.
- 13 Because that I of many men
the slandering did heare, round about me on every side
there was exceeding feare:
While as that they did against mee counsell together take, they craftily have purposed my life away to make.

my confidence have put

Psalme 36.

To the chief Musician a psalme of David,
the servant of the Lord.

THe trespasse of the wicked one faith in assured-wife:
within my heart, the feare of God is not before his eyes.

2 For in his eyes he sooths himselfe:
his sin is found meanwhile

3 hatefull. The words of his mouth are iniquity & guile:

He to be wise, to doe good leaves.

4 He mischief plotts on's bed, he sets himselfe in way not good:
he hath not ill hated.

5 Thy mercy (Lord) in heaven is,
to clouds thy faithfullnes.

6 Thy judgements a great deep, like great mountains thy righteoufnes:

Thou savest man & beast, o Lord.

7 How pretious is thy grace, therefore in shadow of thy wings mens sonnes their trust doe place.

They

PSALME xxxvi, xxxvii.

- 8 They of the fatnes of thy house unto the full shall take:
and of the river of thy joyes to drink thou shalt them make.
- 9 For with thee is the spring of life:
in thy light wee'll see light.
- 10 To them that know thee stretch thy grace;
to right in heart thy right.
- 11 Let no proud foot against me come,
nor wicked hand move mee.
- 12 Wrong doers there are fall'n: cast downe, and rayf'd they cannot bee,
- 37 A Psalm of David.

- FRet not thy selfe because of those that evill workers bee, nor envious bee against the men that work iniquitie.
- 2 For like unto the grasse they shall be cut downe, suddenly:
and like unto the tender herb they withering shall dye.
- 3 Vpon the Lord put thou thy trust, and bee thou doing good,
so shalt thou dwell within the land,
and sure thou shalt have food.
- 4 See that thou set thy hearts delight
also upon the Lord,
and the defyers of thy heart to thee he will afford.
- 5 Trust in the Lord: & hee'l it work,
to him commit thy way.

PSALM xxx vii.

- 6 As light thy justice hee'l bring forth, thy judgement as noone day.
- 7 Rest in Iehovah, & for him with patience doe thou stay:
fret not thy selfe because of him who prospers in his way, Nor at the man, who brings to passe the crafts he doth devise.
- 8 Cease ire, & wrath leave: to doe ill thy selfe fret in no wise.
- 9 For evil doers shall be made by cutting downe to fall:
but those that wayt upon the Lord,
the land inherit shall.
- (2)
- 10 For yet a litle while, & then the wicked shall not bee:
yea, thou shalt diligently mark his place, & it not see.
- 11 But meek ones the inheritance shall of the earth possesse:
also they shall themselves delight in multitude of peace.
- 12 The wicked plotts against the just,
gnashing at him his teeth.
- 13 The Lord shall laugh at him: because his day coming he seeth.
- 14 The wicked have drawne out their sword, & bent their bowe have they,
to cast the poor & needy downe,
to kill th'upright in way.

15 their

PSALME xxx vii.

- 15 Their sword shall enter their owne heart, their bowes shall broken bee.
16 The iust mans little, better is then wickeds treasure.
17 For th'armes of wicked shall be broke:
the Lord the iust doth stay.
18 The Lord doth know upright mens dayes:
and their lot is for aye.
19 Neither shall they ashamed bee in any time of ill:
and when the dayes of famine come,
they then shall have their fill.
20 But wicked, & foes of the Lord as lambs fat shall decay:
they shall consume: yea into smoake they shall consume away.

(3)

- 21 The man ungodly borroweth,
but he doth not repay:
but he that righteous is doth shew mercy, & gives away.
22 For such as of him blessed bee, the earth inherit shall,
and they that of him cursed are,
by cutting downe shall fall.
23 The foot-steps of a godly man they are by Iehovah established: & also hee delighteth in his way.
24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be utterly downe cast:

PSALM xxx vii.

- because Iehovah with his hand doth underprop him fast.
25 I have been young & now am old;
yet have I never seen the iust man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.
26 But every day hee's mercifull, and lends: his seed is blest.
27 Depart from evill, & doe good:
and ever dwell at rest.
28 Because the Lord doth judgement love, his Saints forfakes not hee;
kept ever are they: but cut off the sinners seed shall bee.
29 The iust inherit shall the land, and therein ever dwell.
30 The iust mans mouth wisdom doth speak, his tongue doth judgement tell.
31 The law of his God is in's heart:
none of his steps slideth.
32 The wicked watcheth for the iust, and him to slay seeketh.
33 Iehovah will not such a one relinquish in his hand, neither will he condemne him when adjudged he doth stand.
(4) 34 Wayt on the Lord, & keep his way, and hee shall thee exalt th'earth to inherit: when cut off the wicked see thou shalt.

35 The

PSALME xxxvii, xxxviii.

- 35 The wicked men I have beheld also himsefe ſpreading abroad like to a green-bay-tree.

- 36 Nevertheſſe he paſt away,
and loe, then was not hee;
moreover I did ſeek for him,
but found hee could not bee.
- 37 Take notice of the perfect man, and the upright attend:
becauſe that unto ſuch a man peace is his latter end.
- 38 But ſuch men that tranſgreſſors are together periſh ſhall:
the latter end ſhall be cut off of the ungodly all,
- 39 But the ſalvation of the juſt doth of Iehovah come:
he is their ſtrength to them in times that are moſt troubleſome.
- 40 Yea, help & free them will the Lord:
he ſhall deliver them from wiced men, becauſe that they doe put their truſt in him.

Pſalme 38

A pſalme of David,
to bring to remembrance.

nor in thy hot rage chaſten mee.

and in me thy ſhafts faſtened bee.

PSALM xxx viii.

- 3 There is no foundnes in my flesh, because thine anger I am in:
 nor is there any rest within my bones, by reason of my sin.
- 4 Because that mine iniquities like as an heavy burden, they to heavy upon me are layd.

- 5 My wounds stink, and corrupt they be:
 my foolishnes doth make it so.
- 6 I troubled am, & much bow'd downe;
 all the day long I mourning goe.
- 7 For with foule sores my loynes are fill'd:
 & in my flesh is no foundnes.
- 8 I'me weak & broken sore; I roar'd because of my hearts restlesnes.
- 9 All my desire's before thee, Lord;
 nor is my groaning hid from thee.
- 10 My heart doth pant, my strength me fails:
 & mine eye sight is gone from mee.
- (2)
- 11 My freinds & lovers from my fore stand off: off stand my kinsmen eke.
- 12 And they lay snares that seek my life, that seek my hurt, they mischief speak,
 And all day long imagin guile,
- 13 But as one deafe, I did not heare, and as a dumb man I became as if his mouth not open were.
- 14 Thus was I as man that heares not,
 & in whose mouth reprooves none were.
- 15 because

PSALME xxx viii.

- 15 Because o Lord, in thee I hope:
o Lord my God, thou wilt mee heare.
- 16 For sayd I, lest or'e me they joy:
when my foot slips, they vaunt the more
- 17 themselves 'gainst me. For I to halt am neere, my griefs still mee before .
- 18 For my transgression I'le declare;
I for my sins will sorry bee.
- 19 But yet my lively foes are strong,
who falsly hate me, multiplie.
- 20 Moreover they that doe repay evill in stead of good to mee, because I follow what is good,
to mee they adversaries bee.
- 21 Iehovah, doe not mee forsake:
my God o doe not farre depart
- 22 from mee. Make hast unto mine ayd, o Lord who my salvation art.

Pfalme 39

To the chief musician, even to Ieduthun, a Pfalme of David.

- I Sayd, I will look to my wayes, lest I sin with my tongue: I'le keep my mouth with bit, while I
the wicked am among.
- 2 With silence tyed was my tongue,
my mouth I did refraine,
From speaking that thing which is good,
and stirred was my paine.
- 3 Mine heart within me waxed hot,
while I was musing long,
- I inkindled

PSALM xxx ix.

- inkindled in me was the fire;
then spake I with my tongue.
- 4 Mine end, o Lord, & of my dayes let mee the measure learne;
 that what a momentany thing
 I am I may discern.
- 5 Behold thou mad'st my dayes a span,
 mine age as nought to thee:
 surely each man at's best estate, is wholly vanity. Selah.
- 6 Sure in a vaine shew walketh man;
 sure stir'd in vaine they are:
 he heaps up riches, & knows not who shall the same gather.
- (2)
- 7 And now, o Lord what wayt I for?
 my hope is upon thee.
- 8 Free me from all my trespasses:
 the fooles scorne make not mee.
- 9 I was dumb nor opned my mouth,
 this done because thou hast.
- 10 Remove thy stroke away from mee:
 by thy hands blow I wast.
- 11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity;
 thou blast's his beauty like a moth:
 sure each man 's vanity. Selah.
- 12 Heare my pray'r, Lord, hark to my cry,
 be not still at my tears:
 for stranger, & pilgrim with thee,
 I 'me, as all my fathers.

P S A L M E xxx ix, xl.

- 13 O turne aside a while from mee, that I may strength recall:
before I doe depart from hence, and be noe more at all.

Pfalme 40.

To the chief musician, a psalme-
of David.

With expectation for the Lord
I wayted patiently,
and hee inclined unto mee.
also he heard my cry.

- 2 He brought mee out of dreadfull-pit,
out of the miery clay:
and fet my feet upon a rock, hee stablished my way.

- 3 And in my mouth put a new song, of prayse our God unto:
many shall see, & feare, upon the Lord shall trust also.

- 4 Blest is the man that on the Lord maketh his trust abide:
nor doth the proud respect, nor such
to lies as turne aside.

- 5 O thou Iehovah, thou my God, hast many a wonder wrought:
and likewise towards us thou hast conceived many a thought.

Their summe cannot be reck'ned up'
in order unto thee:
would I declare & speak of them, beyond account they bee.

PSALM xl.

- 9 In the great congregation
thy righteoufnes I show:
loe, I have not refraynd my lips, Iehovah, thou dost know.
- 10 I have not hid thy righteoufnes within my heart alone:
I have declar'd thy faithfullnes and thy falvation:
Thy mercy nor thy truth have I from the great Church conceald.
- 11 Let not thy tender mercyes bee from mee o Lord with-held.
Let both thy kindnes & thy truth keep me my life throughout.
- 12 Because innumerable ills

My fins have caught me fo that I not able am to fee:

Psalme 4 1

To the chief musician, a psalme-
of David.

- 2 Him God will keep, & make to live, on earth hee blest shall be,
nor doe thou him unto the will

PSALM xl iv.

WEE with our eares have heard, o God,
our fathers have us told,
what works thou diddest in their dayes,
in former dayes of old.

2 How thy hand drave the heathen out, and them thou planted hast;
how thou the people didst afflict, and thou didst them out-cast.

3 For they got not by their owne sword
the lands possession, neither yet was it their owne arme wrought their salvation:
But thy right hand, thine arme also,
thy countenances light;
because that of thine owne good will thou didst in them delight.

4 Thou art my king, o mighty God, thou dost the fame indure:
doe thou for Iacob by command deliverances procure.

5 Through thee as with a horne wee will push downe our enemies:
through thy name will wee tread them downe that up against us rise.

6 Because that I will in no wise any affiance have,
upon my bow, neither is it my sword that shall mee save.

7 But from our enemies us thou fav'd, and put our foes to shame.

8 In God wee boast all the day long,

and

and for aye prayse thy name.

Selah.

(2)

- 9 But thou hast cast us off away, thou makest us also to be asham'd; neither dost thou forth with our armies goe.
- 10 Vs from before the enemy
 thou makest back recoyle:
 likewise they which our haters bee,
 for themselves us doe spoyle.
- 11 Thou hast us given like to sheep to slaughter that belong:
 also thou hast us scattered the heathen folk among.
- 12 Thou dost thy people fet to sale whereby no wealth doth rise:
 neither dost thou obtaine increase of riches by their price.
- 13 Vnto our neighbours a reproach thou doest us expose,
 a scorne we are & mocking stock,
 to them that us inclose.
- 14 Among the heathen people thou a by word dost us make:
 also among the nations,
 at us their heads they shake.
- 15 Before me my confusion
 it is continually,
 and of my countenance the shame hath over covered mee.
- 16 Because of his voyce that doth scorne, and scoffingly despight:

by reason of the enemy,
and selfe revenging wight.

(3)

- 17 All this is come on us, wee yet have not forgotten thee:
neither against thy covenant have wee dealt faithleslie.
- 18 Our heart is not turn'd back, nor have our steps from thy way stray'd;
- 19 Though us thou brake in dragons place,
and hid us in deaths shade.
- 20 had wee forgot Gods name, or stretcht to a strange God our hands:
- 21 Shall not God search this out? for hee hearts secrets understands.
- 22 Yea, for thee all day wee are kil'd:
counted as sheep to slay.
- 23 Awake, why sleepest thou, Lord? arise, cast us not off for aye.
- 24 Thy countenance away from us o wherefore dost thou hide?
of our grief & oppression forgetfull dost abide.
- 25 For our soule is bowd downe to dust:
to earth cleaves our belly.
- 26 Rise for our help, & us redeeme, because of thy mercy.

To the chief musician, a song & psalme for

- Great is Iehovah, & he is to be prayfed greatly within the city of our God, in his mountaine holy.

the joy of the whole earth

3 God in her pallaces is knowne to be a refuge high.
4 For loe, the kings assembled were:
they past together by.
5 They saw, & so they merveiled, were troubled, fled for feare.

Pfalme 49

To the chief musician a psalme for the sonnes of Korah.

HEare this all people, all give eare that dwell the world all o're.

2 Sonnes both of low, & higher men, joyntly both rich & poore.

3 My mouth it shall variety of wisdom be speaking:
and my hearts meditation shall be of understanding.

4 Vnto a speech proverbiall
I will mine eare incline;
I will also upon the Harp open my dark doctrine.

5 Why should I be at all afrayd in dayes that evill bee:
when that my heeles iniquity about shall compasse mee.

6 Those men that make their great estates their stay to trust unto,
who in the plenty of their wealth themselves doe boast also:

7 Ther 's not a man of them that can by any meanes redeeme his brother, nor give unto God enough to ransom him.

8 So deare their soules redemption is & ever ceaseth it.

PSALM xl ix.

- 9 That he should still for ever live and never see the pit.
- 10 For he doth see that wise man dye,
the foole and brutish too

to others leave they doo.
- 11 They think their houses are for aye to generations all
their dwelling places, & their lands by their owne names they call.
- 12 Neverthelesse, in honour man, abideth not a night:
become he is just like unto
the beasts that perish quite.
- 13 This their owne way their folly is;
yet whatsoe're they say,
their successors that follow them doe well approve. Selah.
- 14 Like sheep so are they layd in grave, death shall them feed upon;
& th' upright over them in morn shall have dominion.
And from the place where they doe dwell,
the beauty which they have,
shall utterly consume away in the devouring grave.
- (3)
- 15 But surely God redemption unto my soule will give,
even from the power of the grave, for he will me receive. Selah.

PSALME xlix, 1.

- 16 Be not afrayd when as a man in wealth is made to grow, and when the glory of his house abundantly doth flow.
- 17 Because he shall carry away nothing when he doth dye:
neither shall after him descend ought of his dignity.
- 18 And albeit that he his soule
in time of his life blest, and men will prayse thee, when as thou much of thy selfe makest.
- 19 He shall goe to his fathers race,
they never shall see light.
- 20 Man in honour, & know'th not, is like beasts that perish quite.

Pfalme 50.

A psalme of Asaph.

THe mighty God, the Lord hath spoke,
and he the earth doth call,

2 The mighty God hath clearely shyn'd which is of beauty excellent

4 Gainst thee, thee only I have sin'd this ill done thee before:

Psalme 63

A psalme of David, when he was in the wildernes of Iudah.

- O GOD, thou art my God, early
I will for thee inquire:
my soule thirsteth for thee, my flesh for thee hath strong desire,
In land whereas no water is

- 2 To see, as I saw in thine house thy strength & thy glory.
- 3 Because thy loving kindenes doth

- 4 Thus will I blessing give to thee whilst that alive am I:
and in thy name I will lift up

PSALM lx III, lx IV.

- 7 Because that thou hast been to me he that to me help brings;
therefore will I sing joyfully in shadow of thy wings.
- 8 My soule out of an ardent love

- 9 But as for those that seek my soule to bring it to an end, they shall into the lower parts and they be for a portion

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim,

A psalme of David.

THe waters in unto my soule

where I no standing have:

Into deep waters I am come,
where floods mee overflow.

3 I of my crying weary am,
my throat is dried so;
Mine eyes faile: I wayt for my God.

4 They that have hated mee without a cause, then mine heads haire

Also mine enemies wrongfully they are that would me slay, mighty they are; then I restor'd what I took not away.

5 O God thou knowst my foolishnes;
my sin's not hid from thee.

- 16 Of corne an handfull there shall be ith land the mountains tops upon, the fruit whereof shall moving shake like to the trees of Lebanon:
And they that of the citty be like grasse on earth shall flourish all.
- 17 His name for ever shall indure as long as Sun continue shall:

PSALME lxxii.

So shall his name continued be,
and men in him themselves shall blesse, and all the nations of the world shall him the blessed one professe.

18 O let Iehovah blessed be,
the God, the God of Israell, hee worketh by himselfe alone such things whereat men may marvell.

19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever, let the whole earth be fill'd full with glory of the fame, Amen, also Amen say wee.

This. After the common tunes.

19 And aye be blest his glorious name, also let the earth all be filled with his glorious fame, Amen, & so it shall.

20 The prayers of David, the Son of Iesse, are ended.

THE

THIRD BOOKE.

Pfalme 73

A psalme of Asaph.

- TRuly to Israell God is good;
to men of a cleane heart.
- 2 But my feet almost slipt, my steps aside did well nigh start.
- 3 For I was envious at the fooles,
in peace to see the ill.
- 4 For in their death no bands there are,
but firme their strength is still.
- 5 Like other meane men they are not in toylefome misery, nor are they stricken with like plagues as other mortals bee.
- 6 Therefore doth pride like to a chaine encompasse them about,
and like a garment; violence doth cover them throughout.
- 7 Within the fatnes which they have extended are their eyes:
greater prosperity they have then their hearts can devise.
- 8 Corrupt they are, & wickedly speake guile: proudly they talk.
- 9 Against the heav'ns they set their mouth;
their tongue through th'earth doth walk.
- 10 There-

PSALME lxxiii.

- 10 Therefore his people unto them have hither turned in,
and waters out of a full cup wrung out to them have been.
- 11 And they have sayd, how can it be that God this thing should know, & is there in the highest one knowledge hereof also?
- 12 Loe, these are the ungodly ones who have tranquillity:
within the world they doe increase in rich ability.
- 13 Surely in vaine in purity cleansed my heart have I.
- 14 And hands in innocence have washt,
for plagu'd am I dayly:
And every morning chastened.
- 15 If I think thus to say, thy childrens generation loe then I should betray;
- 16 And when this poynt to understand casting I did devise,
the matter too laborious appeared in mine eyes.
- 17 Vntill unto the sanctuary of God I went, & then I prudently did understand the last end of these men.

PSALM lxx iii.

- these men thou placed hast:
and into desolations
thou dost them downward cast.
19 As in a moment, how are they brought to destruction?
how are they utterly consum'd with sad confusion?
20 Like to a dreame when as a man awaking doth arise,
so thou o God, when thou awakst their Image shalt despise.
21 My heart thus was leaven'd with grief, prickt were my reins by mee: 22 So foolish was I, & knew not,
like a beast before thee.
(4)
23 Neverthelesse continually before thee I doe stand: thou hast upheld mee stedfastly also by my right hand.
24 Thou with thy prudent counsell shalt guidance unto mee give:
up afterward also thou shalt to glory mee receive.
25 In heavn above but thee alone who is it that I have?
and there is nothing upon earth
besides thee that I crave.
26 This flesh of mine, my heart also doth faile me altogether:
but God the strength is of my heart,

and

and portion mine for ever.

27 For loe, they that are far from thee utterly perish shall:

those who a whoring goe from thee thou hast destroyed all.

28 But as for mee, for mee it's good neere God for to repaire:

in God the Lord I put my trust,
all thy works to declare.

Pfalme 74

Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off,
why doth thy rage indure?
for ever smoaking out against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Thy congregation call to minde of old by thee purchast:
the rod of thine inheritance which thou redeemed hast,
This mount Sion wherein thou dwelst.

3 Lift up thy foot on hye, unto the desolations
of perpetuity:

Thy foe within the Sanctuary hath done all lewd designes.

4 Amidst thy Church thy foes doe roare:
their Banners set for signes.

5 The man that axes on thick trees did lift up had renowne:

6 But now with axe & maules at once, her carv'd works they beat downe.

PSALM lxx iv.

- 7 Thy sanctuaries into fire they cast, the dwelling place of thy name downe unto the ground prophanely they did raze.
- 8 Let us together them destroy,
thus in their hearts they sayd: Gods Synagogues throughout the land all in the flames they layd.

- 9 Our signes we see not, there's no more a Prophet us among:
nor with us any to be found that understands how long.
- 10 How long shall the oppressing foe
o mighty God, defame?
thine enemy for evermore shall he blaspheme thy name?
- 11 Why dost thou thus withdraw thine hand,
the right hand of thy strength?
out of thy bosom o doe thou draw it forth to the length.
- 12 Because the mighty God hath been from ancient time my King, in midst of the earth he is salvation working.
- 13 Thou diddest by thy mighty powre divide the sea asunder:
the Dragons heads in peeces thou didst break the waters under.
- 14 The heads of the Leviathan thou into peeces brake:

P S A L M E lxxiv.

- to people that in defarts dwell for meat thou didst him make.
- 15 Thou clau'st the fountain & the fload, thou dri'dst up floods of might.
- 16 Thine is the day, & night is thine:
thou Sun prepar'st, & light.
- 17 Thou all the borders of the earth hast constituted fast:
the summer & the winter cold
the same thou formed hast.
- (3)
- 18 Remember this, the enemy
reproachfully doth blame, o Lord, also the foolish folk blasphemed have thy name.
- 19 O doe not to the multitude thy turtles foule deliver:
the congregation of thy poore forget not thou for ever.
- 20 Vnto thy cov'nant have respect:
because the dark places of th'earth with habitations are full of furiousnes.
- 21 O let not the oppressed one returne away with shame:
o let the poor & needy one give prayse unto thy name.
- 22 Arise o God, plead thine owne cause: have thou in memorie
how day by day the foolish man with scorne reproacheth thee.

To the chief musician Altaſchith, pſalme or ſong of Aſaph.

O GOD, to thee doe we give thanks,
thanks give we unto thee:
& that thy name is neere at hand;
thy wonders ſhew to bee.
2 When I th'afſembly ſhall receive uprightly judge I will.
2 Th'earth & its dwellers all do melt:
I ſtay its pillars ſtill, lift not the horne on hye.

5 Lift yee not up your horne on high:
with ſtiffned neck ſpeak not,
6 For neither from Eaſt, Weſt, nor South, promotion can be got.
7 But God is judge: he ſets up one, another downe doth tread.
8 For in the Lords hand is a cup, alſo the wine is red:
It's full of mixture, & thereout he poures: but on earth all the wicked ones the dregs therof

9 But as for me I will declare,

for PSALME lxx v, lxx vi.

Pſalme 76

To the chief muſician, on Neginoth, a pſalm

IN Iudah God is knowne: his name

in Sion he doth dwell,

To the chief mufician, to Ieduthun, a pfalme of Afaph.

- TO GOD I cryed with my voyce:

cryed unto the mighty God;

I did complaine, & my spirit

- 4 Awaking thou dost hold mine eyes:
I cannot speak for feares.
5 I have considered dayes of old,
of ancient times the yeares.

- 6 To my remembrance I doe call the song in night I had:
I commun'd with my heart, also strict search my spirit made.

- 7 For ever will the Lord cast off?
& pleased will he not bee?
8 His tender mercy is it ceased to perpetuitee?

His promise doth it, faile for aye?

- 9 Hath God forgot likewise gracious to be? hath he shut up in wrath his deare mercyes? Selah.

- 10 Then did I say, within my selfe, tis mine infirmity:
the yeares of the right hand I will think on of the most high.

(3)

- 11 I will unto remembrance call the actions of the Lord:
thy wondrous works of ancient time

Pfalme 78

Maschil of Asaph.

ye people that are mine,

unto

PSALME lxx viii.

unto the sayings of my mouth doe yee your eare incline.

- 2 My mouth I'le ope in parables, I'le speak hid things of old:
3 Which we have heard & knowne:& which
our fathers have us told.
4 Them from their children wee'l not hide, to th'after age shewing the Lords prayfes: his strength, & works of his wondrous doing.
5 In Iacob he a witnesse fet, & put in Ifraell
a law, which he our fathers charg'd, they should their children tell: 6 That th'age to come & children which are to be borne might know; that they might rife up & the same unto their children show.
7 That they upon the mighty God their confidence might fet:
and Gods works & his commandment might keep & not forget, 8 And might not like their fathers be,
a stiffe, stout race; a race that set not right their hearts: nor firme with God their spirit was.

(2)

- 9 The armed sonnes of Ephraim,
that went out with their bowe, did turne their backs in the day when they did to battell goe.

PSALM lxxviii.

- 10 Gods cov'nant they kept not: to walk
in his law they denyde: 11 His works, & wonders, they forgot, that he to them descryde.
12 Things that were mervielous he did within their fathers fight:
in Egipts land, within the field of Zoan, by his might.
13 He did devise the sea, also he cauf'd them through to passe:
& he the waters made to stand that as an heap it was.
14 With cloud by day, with fire all night 15 he led them; Rocks he clave in wildernes, as from great deeps drink unto them he gave.
16 Ev'n from out of the stony rock streames he did bring also, & caufed water to run downe like as the rivers do.
(3)
17 Moreover they did adde yet more against him for to fin:
by their provoaking the most high the wildernes within.
18 And also they within their heart did tempt the God of might:
by asking earnestly for meat for their soules appetite: 19 Moreover they against God spake:
they sayd can God be able within

PSALME lxx viii.

within the defart wildernes to furnifh us a table?

20 Loe, he the rock fmote, thence gusht out waters, & ftreames did flow:
for his folk can he flefh provide,
can he give bread alfo?

21 The Lord heard, he was wroth for this,
fo kindled was a fire
'gainft Iacob:&'gainft Ifraell
there came up wrathfull ire.

22 For they in God believed not:
nor in his health did hope:

23 Though from above he charg'd the clouds:
& doores of heav'n fet ope:

(4)

24 Manna to eate he raind on them; & gave them the heavns wheat.

25 Each man of them ate Angells food:
to th'full he fent them meate.

26 Ith heav'ns he made the Eaft-winde blow:
brought South-winde by his powre.

27 He flefh on them like duft: wing'd foules like the feas fand did fhowre.

28 And in the middeft of their camp he'caufed it to fall, ev'n round about on every fide their dwelling places all.

29 So they did eate, they filled were abundantly alfo:
for that which was their owne defire
he did on them beftow:

30 How-

PSALM lxx viii.

- 30 Howbeit they were not estrang'd from their lustfull desire:
but while their meat was in their mouths, 31 Vpon them came Gods ire,
And slew their fat ones: & smote downe of Israell the choise men.
32 Still for all this they sin'd: nor did believe his wonders then.
(5)
33 Therefore he did in vanity the dayes of their life spend, and hastily he brought their yeares vnto a fearfull end.
34 When he them slew, then after him they fought with their desire:
and they return'd, early also did after God enquire.
35 Likewise that God was their strong rock they cal'd to memoree:
and that the mighty God most high,
was their Redeemer free.
36 Yet with their mouth they flattred him:
and to him their tongues lyde.
37 For right their heart was not in them:
nor did in's cov'nant byde.
3 8 But full of mercy, he forgave their sin, & stroyd them not;
yea, oft he turn'd his wrath aside, nor rayf'd all's anger hot.
39 For he, that they were but fraile flesh, and as it were a winde

that

that passeth, & comes not againe, recalled unto minde.

- 40 How oft in desert vext they him:
and made him there to moane?
- 41 Yea, they turn'd, tempted God: & did stint Ifr'ells holy one.
- 42 His hand they did not, nor the day keep in their remembrance:
wherein he from the enemy
gave them deliverance:
- 43 And how his signes miraculous
in Egipt he had showne:
and his most fearfull prodigies within the field of Zoan:
- 44 Also how he their rivers had converted into bloud:
& (that they could not drink therof)
the waters of their flood.
- 45 Amongst them, which did them devoure,
he sent forth divers flies:
& them amongst, which them destroyd,
he sent forth frogs likewise.
- 46 He gave their fruit to th'Caterpillar:
their labour to th'Locust.
- 47 He did their Vines destroy with haile:
their Sycamores with frost.
- 48 Also unto the haile he did their cattell shut up fast:
likewise their heards of cattell to the fiery thunder blast,

PSALM lxxviii.

49 He cast on them fierce ire, & wrath, & indignation,
& fore distresse: by sending forth ill Angells them upon.

(7)

50 He made a way unto his wrath, and their soule did not save from death: also their life over to Pestilence he gave,

51 He within Egipt land also all the first borne did smite:
those that within the tents of Ham were chiefest of their might:

52 But he made like a flock of sheep his owne folk forth to go:
like to a flock ith wildernes he guided them also.

53 And he in safety did them lead so that they did not dread:
within the sea their enemies
he also covered.

54 And to the border he did bring them of his holy place:
unto this mountaine which he did
by his right hand purchase.

55 Fore them he cast the heathen out, their lot he did deuide by line: & Ifr'ells tribes he made in their tents to abide.

(8)

56 Yet they tempted the most high God,

and

PSALME lxx viii.

- & griev'd him bitterly:
also his testimonyes they kept not attentively: 57 But like their fathers back they turn'd and faithlesnesse did shew:
they turned were aside ev'n like to a deceitfull bowe.
58 For they to anger did provoake him with their places hye: & with their graven Images, mov'd him to jealousy.
59 God hearing this, was wroth, & loath'd Ifr'ell with hatred great:
60 So Shilohs tent he left: the tent which men amongst he set, 61 And he delivered his strength into captivity:
also into the enemies hand
his beautifull glory.
62 To th' sword he gave his folk: & was wroth with his heritage.
63 Fire their young men devour'd: their maides none gave to marriage.
64 Their Priests fell by the sword: also their widdows did not weepe.
65 Then did the Lord arise as one awakned out of sleepe:
Like a strong man that after wine 66 doth shout. He also smote his foes behinde: & so he gave them an eternall blot.

PSALM lxx viii, lxx ix.

(9)

- 67 Then he did Iosephs tent refuse:
nor Ephr'ims tribe approv'd.
68 But he the tribe of Iudah chose: mount Sion which he lov'd.
69 And he his Sanctuary built like unto places high:
like to the earth which he did found to perpetuity.
70 Of David also his servant election he did make,
and from the place of folding up the sheep he did him take.
71 From following the ewes with young he did him then advance;
to feed Iacob his folk, also Ifr'ell his heritance.
72 So he according to his hearts integrity them fed:
and by the wise discretion of his hands he them led.

I did them ſend away,
in their owne conſultations

Pfalme 82

A psalme of Asaph.

THe mighty God doth stand within th'assemblie of the strong:

and he it is that righteously doth judge the gods among.

2 How long a time is it that yee will judge unrighteouslie?

& will accept the countenance of those that wicked bee?

3 See that yee doe defend the poore, also the fatherlesse:

unto the needy justice doe,
and that are in distresse.

4 The wasted poore, & those that are needy deliver yee;

and them redeeme out of the hand of such as wicked bee.

5 They know not, nor will understand, in darknes they walk on:

all the foundations of the earth quite out of course are gone.

6 I sayd that yee are gods, & sonnes of th'highest yee are all.

7 But yee shall dye like men, & like one of the princes fall.

8 That thou mayst judge the earth o God, doe thou thy selfe advance;

for thou shalt have the nations for thine inheritance.

PSALM lxxxiii.

Pfalme 83

A psalme or song of Asaph,

O GOD, doe not thou silence keep:
o doe not thou refraine thy selfe from speaking, & o God.
doe not thou dumb remaine.

2 For loe, thine enemies that be doe rage tumultuously:
& they that haters be of thee have lift the head on hye.

3 Against those that thy people be they crafty counsell take;
also against thy hidden ones they consultation make.

4 They sayd, lest they a nation be,
let's cut them downe therefore,
that in remembrance Iſr'els name may not be any more.

5 For they together taken have counsell with one consent, and in confederation
against thee they are bent.

6 The tabernacles of Edom and of the Ishmaelites:
the people of the Haggarens & of the Moabites.

7 The men of Gebal, with Ammon, and Amaleck conspire,
the Philistims, with them that be inhabitants of Tyre.

8 Assyria moreover is conjoynd unto them:

& help they have administred unto Lots childerren.

- 9 As thou didst to the Middianites, so to them be it done:
as unto Sifera & Iabin
at the Brook of Kifon
- 10 Who neere to Endor suddenly were quite discomfited:
who also did become as dung that on the earth is spread.
- 11 Like unto Oreb, & like Zeeb make thou their Nobles fall, yea, as Zeba & Zalmunna make thou their Princes all.
- 12 Who sayd, for our possession Gods houses let us take.
- 13 My God, thou like a wheel, like straw before the winde them make.
- 14 As fire doth burne a wood, & as the flame sets hills on fire:
- 15 So with thy tempest them pursue, & fright them in thine ire.
- 16 Doe thou their faces all fill full of ignominious shame:
that so they may o Lord, be made to seek after thy name.
- 17 Confounded let them ever be,
and terrible troubled:
yea, let them be put unto shame,

and

and bee extinguished.

- 18 That men may know; that thou whose name IEHOVAH is only,
art over all the earth throughout advanced the most high.

Pfalme 84

To the chief musician upon Gittith a psalm for the sonnes of Korah.

HOW amiable Lord of hoasts thy tabernacles bee?

- 2 My soule longs for Iehovahs courts, yea it ev'n faints in mee.

Mine heart, my flesh also cries out after the living God:

- 3 Yea ev'n the sparrow hath found out an house for hir aboad.

Also the swallow findes her nest thine Altars neere unto where shee her young layes: Lord of hoasts, my King, my God also.

- 4 Blest they that dwell within thy house:
still they will give thee prayse. Selah.

- 5 Blest is the man whose strength's in thee,
in whose heart are their wayes.

- 6 Who as they passe through Baca's Vale doe make it a fountaine:

also the pooles that are therein
are filled full of raine:

- 7 From strength to strength they go: to God in Sion all appeare.

- 8 Lord God of hoasts, o heare my pra'yr,

o Iacobs

PSALME lxxxiv, lxxx.

o Iacobs God, give eare. Selah.

- 9 Behould o God our shield: the face of thine annoynted see.
10 For better's in thy courts a day, then elsewhere thoufands bee:
I rather had a doore-keeper be it 'hhouse of my God:
then in the tents of wickednes to fettle mine aboard.
11 Because the Lord God is a Sun, he is a shield also:
Iehovah on his people grace and glory will bestow:
No good thing will he hould from them that doe walk uprightlee.
12 O Lord of hoasts, the man is blest that puts his trust in thee.

Pfalme 85

To the chiefe musician, a psalme for the sonnes of Korah.

- O LORD, thou hast been to the land gracious: Iacobs captiuity thou hast returned with thy hand.
2 Thou also the iniquity of thy people hast pardoned:
thou all their sin hast covered. Selah.
3 Thou all thine anger didst withdraw:
from thy fierce indignation thou hast thy selfe turned away.
4 O God of our salvation

PSALM lxxx v, lxxx vi.

convert thou us; & doe thou make thine anger toward us to flake.

- 5 Shall thy wrath ever be us on?
wilt thou thine indignation draw out to generation?
and unto generation?

- 6 Wilt thou not us reviv'd let bee, that thy folk may rejoyce in thee.

- 7 Lord on us shew thy mercy; eke thy saving health on us bestow.
8 I'll hark what God the Lord will speak, for hee'll speak peace his folk unto,
and to his Saints: but let not them to foolishnes returne agen.
9 Surely his saving health is nigh unto all them that doe him feare;
that in our land may dwell glory.
10 Mercy & truth met together, prosperity & righteousness embracing did each other kisse.
11 Truth springs out of the earth: also from heaven looketh righteousness.
12 Yea, God shall that that's good bestow;
our land eke shall give her increase.
13 Justice shall goe before his face,
& in the way her steps shall place.

3 Thy wrath away all cast thou hast: from fiercenes of thine ire thy selfe return'd thou hast.

of our saluation:

& toward us cause thou to cease thine indignation,

for evermore? what shall?
thine anger be by thee drawne-out
to generations all?

6 Wilt thou not us revive? in thee thy folk rejoyce shall so.

7 Shew us thy mercy, Lord; on us thy saving health bestow.

8 I'le heare what God the Lord will speak:
for to his people peace hee'l speak; & to his Saints: lest they 9 Surely naere them that doe him feare justice & peace doe kisse.

Pfalme 86

A prayer of David.

BOw downe o Lord, thine eare, & harken unto mee:

because that I afflicted am,
also I am needie.

- 2 Doe thou preserve my soule,
for gracious am I:

o thou my God, thy servant save,
that doth on thee rely.

- 3 Lord pittie me, for I cry daily thee unto.

- 4 Rejoyce thy servants soule: for Lord, to thee mine lift I do.

- 5 For thou o Lord, art good,
to pardon prone withall:

and to them all in mercy rich that doe upon thee call.

- 6 Iehovah, o doe thou give eare my pray'r unto:

& of my supplications attend the voyce also.

- 7 In day of my distresse,
to thee I will complaine:

by reason that thou unto mee wilt answer give againe.

none is there like to thee:
neither with thine are any works

9 All nations o Lord, whom thou hast made, the same shall come & worship thee before:
and glorify thy Name.

10 Because thou mighty art, the things that thou hast done are wonderfull, thou art thy selfe the mighty God alone.

11 Iehovah, unto mee
o make thy way appeare, walk in thy truth I will; mine heart unite thy name to feare.

12 Withall mine heart I will o Lord my God, thee prayse: & I will glorify thy name, for evermore alwayes.

13 Because that unto mee thy mercy doth excell;
also thou hast delivered
my soule from lowest hell.

(3)

14 O God, the proud, & troupes of violent rose 'gainst mee, after my soule they fought: nor have

and mercy on mee have:
unto thy fervant give thy strength:
thine handmaides son do save.

that mine haters may see,
and be asham'd; because Lord, thou

LORD God of my saluation, and my life draws nigh to the grave.

in darknesses, within deep caves.

unto them loathsome thou madst mee,
I am shut up nor forth can go.

why hidest thou thy face from mee?

I am fore troubled doubtfully while I doe beare thy horrid feares.

PSALME lxxx ix.

THe mercyes of Iehovah sing for evermore will I: I'le with my mouth thy truth make known to all posterity.

2 For I have sayd that mercy shall for ever be up built;
establisht in the very heav'ns thy faithfullnes thou wilt.

3 With him that is my chosen one
I made a covenant:
& by an oath have sworne unto David mine owne servant.

4 To perpetuity thy seed establisht-fure I will:
also to generations all thy throne I'le build up still. Selah.

5 Also the heav'ns thy wonders Lord, they shall with prayse confesse;
in the assemblie of the Saints also thy faithfullnes.

6 For who can be compar'd unto the Lord the heav'ns within?
'mong sonnes of mighty to the Lord who is't that's like to him.

7 I'th Saints assemblie greatly God

- 9 Over the raging of the sea, thou dost dominion beare:
when as the waves therof arise,

- 10 Like to one slaine, thou broken hast in pieces Rahab quite:
thou hast disperst thine enemies ev'n by thine arme of might.
- 11 The heav'ns together with the earth, thine are they: thine they bee;
the world, with fullnes of the same,
founded they were by thee.
- 12 The North together with the South
thou didst create the same:
Tabor together with Hermon, rejoyce shall in thy Name.

(3)

- 13 Thou hast a very mighty arme, thy hand it is mighty,
and also thy right hand it is exalted up on high.
- 14 Iustice & judgement of thy throne
are the prepared place:
mercy & truth preventing shall goe forth before thy face.
- 15 O blessed are the people that the joyfull sound doe know, Lord, in thy countenances light they up & downe shall goe:

16 They

PSALME lxxx ix.

 rejoyce exceedingly:
 and in thy righteoufnes they shall also in thy favour.

- 18 Because Iehovah is to us a safe protection;
 and he that is our Soveraigne,

 One from the folk chose, I set up.
- 20 David my servant I have found: him I annoynted with mine oyle of sanctity.

 mine arme him strengthen shall.
- 22 Also the enemy shall not exact on him at all:
 Nor shall the Son of wickednes afflict him any more.
- 23 Before him I'le beat downe his foes, and plague his haters fore.

his hand upon the sea:

27 Also I will make him to be my first begotten one:
higher then those that Princes are,
who dwell the earth upon.
28 My mercy I will keep for him to times which ever last:
also my covenant with him
it shall stand very fast.

(5)

- 29 And I will make his seed indure
to perpetuitee:
his throne likewise it like unto the dayes of heav'n shall bee.
30 If that his sons forsake my law,
& from my judgements swerve:
31 If they my statutes break, & my

32 Then will I visit with the rod their bold transgression, as also their iniquity with sore stripes them upon.
33 But yet my loving kindenes, it I'le not take utterly

my faithfullnes to lye.

PSALME lxxxix,

And like the Sun 'fore mee his throne.

with thine annoynted one.
- 39 Thou hast made voyd the covenant

by casting of it downe.
- 40 Thou hast broke all his hedges downe:
his forts thou ruin'd hast.
- 41 All those doe make a spoyle of him who by the way have past:

thou hast advanced their right hand: & made all's foes to joy.

thou hast turn'd backward quite:

his glorious renowne:
unto the very earth his throne thou also hast cast downe.
- 45 And of his youthfull yeares the dayes thou hast diminished;
with very great confusion thou hast him covered. Selah.
- (7)
- 46 How long? Iehovah, wilt thou hide thy selfe for evermore?
burne like unto consuming fire shall thy displeasure fore?
- 47 To thy remembrance doe thou call how short a time have I; wherefore hast thou created all mens sonnes to vanity?
- 48 What strong man is there that doth live, & death shall never see?
from the strong power of the grave shall he his soule set free?
- 49 Thy former loving kindenesse
o Lord, where are they now?
which in thy truth & faithfullnes to David thou didst vow.

unto remembrance call:
how I it beare in my bosome from mighty people all.

God to eternitee.

and by thy fore displeasure wee our secret evils are within our dayes all passe away:

our years wee have consumed quite,

11 The waters covered their foes:
of them there was left none.

12 They did believe his word; they fang

13 They foone forgot his words; nor would they for his counfell ftay:

14 But much i'th wildernes did luft; i'th defart God tryde they.

15 And he their fuite them gave; but fent

16 They envi'd Mofes in the camp, Aaron Gods Saint alfo.

17 The opned earth, Dathan devour'd;
and hid Abirams troupe.

18 And fire was kindled in their rout:
flame burnt the wicked up.

19 In Horeb made a calfe; alfo molt image worshipt they.

20 They chang'd their glory to be like,
an oxe that eateth hay.

21 They God forgot their faviour; which

22 Works wondrous in the land of Ham:
by th'red fea dreadfull facts.

23 And fayd, he would them wafte; had not

PSALM CVI.

- 24 Yet they despis'd the pleasant land:
nor did believe his word: 25 But murmur'd in their tents: the voyce they heard not of the Lord.
26 To make them fall i'th defart then,
'gainst them he lift his hands.
27 'Mongst nations eke to fell their seed, and scatter them i'th lands.
28 And to Baal-Peor they joyn'd themselves:
ate offerings of the dead.
29 Their works his wrath did thus provoake:
the plague amongst them spread.
30 Then Phineas rose, & judgement did:
and so the plague did stay.
31 Which justice to him counted was:
to age and age for aye.

(5)

- 32 At th'waters of contention they angred him also:
so that with Moses for their sakes,
it very ill did go:
33 Because his spirit they provoakt:
with's lips to speake rashly.
34 The nations as the Lord them charg'd, they stroyd not utterly:
35 But were amongst the Heathen mixt, and learn'd their works to do:
36 And did their Idols serve; which them became a snare unto.
37 Yea, unto divills, they their sonnes

38 And guiltlesse blood, blood of their sons
& of their daughters shed,

Whom unto Canans Idols they offred in sacrifice :

the land with blood abundantly poluted was likewise.

39 Thus with the works were they defylde which they themselves had done:

and they did goe a whoring with inventions of their owne:

40 Therefore against his folk the wrath was kindled of the Lord:

so that he the inheritance which was his owne abhorr'd.

41 And he gave them to heathens hand;
their haters their lords were.

42 Their foes thral'd them; under their hand made them the yoake to beare.

43 Oft he deliverd them; but they provoakt him bitterly with their counsell, & were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Yet, he regarded their distresse;
when he did heare their plaint.

45 And he did to remembrance call for them his Covenant:

And in his many mercyes did

- O Give yee thanks unto the Lord, because that good is hee:
because his loving kindenes lasts

2 So let the Lords redeem'd say: whom hee freed from th'enemies hands:
3 And gathred them from East, & West, from South. & Northerne lands.
4 I'th defart, in a defart way they wandred: no towne finde, 5 to dwell in. Hungry & thirsty:
their soule within them pinde.
6 Then did they to Iehovah cry
when they were in distresse:
who did them fet at liberty

out of their anguishes.

7 In such a way that was most right he led them forth also:

that to a citty which they might inhabit they might go.

8 O that men would Iehovah prayse
for his great goodnes then:

& for his workings wonderfull unto the sonnes of men.

9 Because that he the longing foule doth thoroughly satisfy:

the hungry foule he also fills with good abundantly.

10 Such as in darknes and within who are in fore affliction, also in yron tyde:

11 By reason that against the words of God they did rebell;

also of him that is most high contemned the counsell.

12 Therefore with molestation hee did bring downe their heart:

downe did they fall, & none their was could help to them impart.

13 Then did they to Iehovah cry
when they were in distress:

who did them set at liberty
out of their anguishes.

14 He did them out of darknes bring,

as for the bands that they were in he did them break afunder.
- 15 O that men would Iehovah prayse

when they were in distres:
who did them fet at liberty
out of their anguishes.
- 20 He, sent his word, & therewithall healing to them he gave:
from out of their destructions
he did them also save.
- 21 O that men would Iehovah prayse,

- 25 Because that he the stormy winde which lifteth up the waves therof,

- 26 They mount up to the skyes:
Downe goe they to the depths againe, their foule with ill doth quaile.
- 27 They reele,& stagger,drunkard like,
and all their witt doth faile.
- 28 Then did they to Iehovah cry
when they were in distress:
and therupon he bringeth them
out of their anguishes.
- 29 Hee makes the storme a calme: so that the waves therof are still.
- 30 Their rest then glads them; he them bring

PSALM CVII.

34 A fruitfull foyle to barrennes;

36 Seates there the hungry; who prepar which may unto them fruitfull things

33 Also he bleffeth them, so that they greatly are increast:
and for to be diminished

39 Againe they are diminished & they are brought downe low, by reason of their pressing-freights, affliction & sorrow.

- 40 On Princes he contempt doth powre,

41 Yet hee out of affliction

PSALM CXIX.

- 13 All the just judgements of thy mouth declared with my lips have I.
- 14 I in thy testimonyes way

- 15 In thy precepts I'le meditate:
and have respect unto thy wayes.
- 16 My selfe I'le solace in thy lawes:
and not forget what thy word sayes.
- א (3) Gimel
- 17 Confer this grace thy servant to,
that I may live thy word to keep.
- 18 Vnveile mine eyes, that I may see out of thy law the wonders deep.
- 19 I am a stranger in the earth:
do not thy precepts from me hide.
- 20 My soule is broken with desire unto thy judgements time & tide.
- 21 Thou hast rebuk'd the proud, acurst which doe frō thy commandments fwerue.
- 22 Roll off from mee reproach & scorne:
for I thy records doe observe.
- 23 Ev'n Princes fate & 'gainst mee spake;
but on thy lawes thy servant mus'd.
- 24 Thy records also are my joyes:
and for men of my counsell us'd.
- ג (4) Daleth
- 25 Downe to the dust my soule cleav's fast:

- 26 I shew'd my wayes & thou mee heardst:

- 27 Thy precepts way make mee to know:

PSALME CXIX.

28 My soule doth melt for heavines:

29 The way of lying from mee take:

30 The way of truth I chofen have:
thy judgements 'fore mee layd have I.

31 Thy testimonies cleave I to;

36 Vnto thy records bend my heart;

37 From vaine fights turne away mine eyes:
and in thy way make mee to live.

38 Confirme thy word thy servant to,

because thy judgements I attend.
- 44 So I thy law shall alway keep,
to everlasting without end.
- 45 And I will walk at libertie, because I doe thy precepts seek.
- 46 Nor will I blush, when before Kings
I of thy testimonies speak.
- 47 In thy commands, which I have lov'd, also my selfe delight I will.
- 48 And lift my hands to thy commands

- 49 Good to thy fervant make the word,

- 50 This was my comfort in my griefe, because thy word doth make mee live.
- 51 The proud have much derided mee:
yet have I not thy law decline.
- 52 Thy judgements Lord, that are of old,
I did recall, & comfort finde.
- 53 Horroure hath taken hold on mee:
for lewd men that thy law forsake.
- 54 I, in my pilgrimages house, of thy statutes my songs doe make.
- 55 By night remembered I thy Name,

- 56 This hath been unto mee, because I from thy precepts did not fwerve.

LORD, free mee from the evill man:
from violent man save mee.

2 Whose hearts thinke mischief: every day for war they gathred bee.

3 Their tongues they have made to be sharp a serpent like unto :
the poyson of the Aspe it is under their lipps also. Selah.

4 Keepe mee, Lord, from the wickeds hands, from violent man mee save:
my goings who to overthrow in thought projected have.

5 The proud have hid a snare for mee, cords also: they a net
have spread abroad by the way side:
grins for mee they have set. Selah.

6 Vnto Iehovah I did say, thou art a God to mee:
Lord, heare the voice of my requests, which are for grace to thee.

7 O God, the Lord, who art the stay of my salvation:
my head by thee hath covered been

8 Those mens desires that wicked are,
Iehovah, doe not grant, their wicked purpose further not,
lest they themselves doe vaunt.

PSALM Cxl, Cxli.

- 9 As for the head of them that mee

o let the molestation of their lips cover those.
- 10 Let burning coales upon them fall, into the fire likewise let them be cast, into deepe pits, that they no more may rise.
- 11 Let not i'th earth establisht bee

the man of violent wrong.
- 12 The afflicteds cause, the poore mans right,

Pfalme 141.

A psalme of David.

- O GOD, my Lord, on thee I call,

and harken thou unto my voice,
when I cry unto thee.
- 2 And let my pray'r directed be

o doe thou keepe the dore.
- 4 Bow not my heart to evill things;

my head it shall not breake:

For yet my prayr's ev'n in their woes.

- 6 When their judges are cast on rocks, then shall they heare my words, for they are sweet to taste.

- 7 Like unto one who on the earth

- 8 But unto thee o God, the Lord directed are mine eyes:
my foule o leave not destitute,

FINIS

An admonition to the Reader.

THe verses of these psalmes may be reduced to six kindes, the first wherof may be sung in very neere forty common tunes; as they are collected, out of our chief musicians, by Tho. Ravenscroft.

The second kinde may be sung in three tunes as Psf. 25. 50. & 67. in our english psalm books.

The third. may be sung indifferently, as psf. the 51. 100. & ten cōmandements, in our english psalme books. which three tunes aforefaid, comprehend almost all this whole book of psalmes, as being tunes most familiar to us.

The fourth. as psf. 148. of which there are but about five.

The fift. as psf. 112. or the Pater noster, of which there are but two. viz. 85. & 138.

The sixt. as psf. 113. of which but one, viz. 115.

Imprinted

1640

THE volume popularly known as the "BAY PSALM BOOK" was printed at Cambridge, Massachusetts, by Stephen Daye, in 1640, and is the first book printed in British America.

Isaiah Thomas, in his "History of Printing," gives an account of this book, not without errors, however, as he had never seen a perfect copy. His description of the title-page, for instance, is that of an entirely different book, published several years later. He makes, too, the further mistake of describing the book as a small octavo. Lowndes follows Thomas as to the title, but quotes Dr. Cotton as to the quarto form. Cotton mentions the book as in the Bodleian Library, calling it, "The Psalms in Metre, 4to, no place, no name, 1640," and gives a specimen in his appendix, being ignorant evidently of its origin. Other bibliographical writers have perpetuated the errors of Thomas and Lowndes. All however agree as to the extreme rarity and value of the book; Lowndes saying, "This volume, which is excessively rare, and would at an auction in America, produce from four to six thousand dollars, is familiarly termed the 'Bay Psalm Book.'"

The Rev. Thomas Prince, who once owned the copy now offered for sale, and who published in 1758 a revised and improved edition of the book, says in his preface, "By 1636 there were come over hither near thirty pious and learned ministers, educated in the universities of England; and from the same exalted Principle of Scripture, Purity in Religious Worship, they set themselves to translate the Psalms and other Scripture Songs into English Metre, as near as possible to the inspired Original. They committed this work especially to the Rev. Mr. Richard Mather of Dorchester, the Rev. Mr. Thomas Weld, and the Rev. Mr. John Eliot, of Roxbury, well acquainted with the Hebrew, in which the Old Testament, and with the Greek, in which the New, were originally written. They finished the Psalms in 1640, which were first printed by Mr. Daye, that year, at our Cambridge."

An exact reprint was published in 1862, by C. B. Richardson of New York, from the copy now offered for sale, with a preface by the late N. B. Shurtleff, M. D., who owned the volume and superintended the work.

The history of this copy, so far as known, is this. Originally the property of one of its authors, the Rev. Richard Mather, (whose well-known autograph it contains in many places, declaring it to be 'His Booke,') the little volume subsequently came into the hands of the Rev. Thomas Prince, the friend and disciple of Cotton Mather, Richard's grandson. By Prince it was made a part of his famous New-England Library, as appears by his book-plate, itself a rarity, upon the reverse of the title-page, as follows :

This Book belongs to The New-England-Library, Begun to be collected by Thomas Prince,
upon his entring Harvard-College, July 6, 1703 ; and was given by said Prince, to remain therein for ever.

This Library was bequeathed to the Old South Church by Prince's will, dated Oct. 2d, 1758, and from that time till 1860, the book remained in the custody of the deacons and pastors of that church. In that year it was given by the church, through the proper agents, to the late Nathaniel Bradstreet Shurtleff, M. D.

After Dr. Shurtleff's death, the volume was catalogued with the rest of his library, by Mr. Leonard, and would have been sold Dec. 2d, 1875, but for an injunction obtained by the deacons of the Old South Church at that time. Since then the matter has been heard by the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, the injunction dissolved, and the book adjudged to belong to Dr. Shurtleff's estate, which is thus able to give to a purchaser a clear and undisputed title.

This copy is in the original binding, old calf, and is absolutely perfect as regards the printed matter, though a small portion of the margin of the title-page and part of the blank space on the page of errata have been cut out. There is not probably in the world another copy in this condition. The fact that this is a veritable Author's Copy, gives it an additional interest and value.

The collation is as follows: Title-page with ornamented border, verso blank, with Prince's book-plate pasted upon it ; Preface, twelve pages, and seven lines at the close printed shortening at each end on the thirteenth page, the fourteenth being blank. "The Psalmes" beginning on page "A" which follows, two hundred and seventy-eight pages, the last containing, after the word "Finis," fifteen lines headed, "An admonition to the reader" ; Errata, one page, verso blank. At the head of every left hand page, except two, the word "PSALM" is spelled in the modern fashion, and on the opposite page it is spelled "P S A L M E" (spaced). The volume is without folios, but has signatures and catchwords throughout. Size of page, six and seven-eighths inches by four and one-half inches.
